"We best serve ourselves by first serving others."

"My experiences have allowed me to know love, patience, reality, and God. I have opened myself to differences of race and social position. I believe in social justice and the power of one making a difference. We best serve ourselves by first serving others in the name of common humanity."

~ King's Student

Dozens of sites in our area desperately need your help every day. As a King's College student, you hold exceptional talents and skills. Volunteering in the Wyoming Valley will provide you with the best opportunity to help others while learning more about the world you live in. Consider your talents and how you can use them to create a rewarding experience for both the community and yourself.
