IV. Anonymous—Jane or John Doe Report

The survivor may report incidents of sexual assault or rape in a confidential manner to a member of the Counseling Center or a priest from Campus Ministry.

- Confidential reporting is referred to as John or Jane Doe Reporting.
- The counselor or priest will report that an incident took place excluding the name of the survivor but including the time, location, description of the incident and accused assailant or description (with the permission of the survivor) to the Title IX coordinator.
- When a student files a report, they are not obligated to continue with legal proceedings or Title IX procedures, but they may choose to do so.
- Anonymous / confidential reporting website: https://www.kings.edu/life_at_kings/dean_of_students/confidential_reporting

 Survivors are highly encouraged to report the incident to a Title IX Coordinator or Campus Safety and Security.

- Censure
- Disciplinary Probation
- Counseling
- Community Service
- No Contact/ Trespass
- Suspension
- Expulsion
VII. Statement of Survivor Rights:

- The survivor has the power to make decisions affecting his/her medical and emotional treatment.
- The survivor has control over making decisions and pursuing legal prosecution.
- The survivor will decide who is notified outside the protocol established by the College, including notification of parents (except in the case of a minor survivor).
- The survivor will receive support from the College in obtaining counseling or other support.
- The survivor will be aided by the College in obtaining a living environment that is safe and secure.
- The survivor will be assured of confidentiality within the protocol followed by the College.

VIII. Rights of the Accused and the Accuser:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1. To have a fair and proper review of the complaint</th>
<th>2. To have timely notice of all meetings</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. To have an advisor present of their choosing at all meetings with the investigators and hearing officer</td>
<td>4. To have a hearing officer that does not have a conflict of interest with either the accused or the accuser</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. To have the opportunity to present information to the investigators and the hearing officer for consideration in the process</td>
<td>6. To have a complaint resolved within a 60 day period unless there are extenuating circumstances requiring a longer period of time</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. To have information regarding how the process is conducted</td>
<td>8. To have the right to appeal the decision of the hearing officer to the appropriate vice president</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

IX. Procedural Process:

- All complaints can be made to the Title IX coordinator or the Assistant Title IX coordinator (See section III for specific roles).
- Know your rights (See section VI and VII for rights).
- Investigation may include interviews of the parties involved. This will include witnesses and the gathering of other relevant information.
- An investigation of the report shall be commenced within ten business days and completed within sixty days.
- The College will take all necessary steps to remedy discriminatory effects on the survivor(s) and others (See Protective Measures in section V).

X. Appeal Process:

- Appeals of the findings of the formal process are filed to the appeal officer. For students, this is the Vice President for Student Affairs.
- Complainant or Accused may appeal if they:
  - Disagree with the outcome
  - Have new evidence that was not available at the time of the decision
  - Feel the process was not followed
- The appeal must be made in writing within 5 business days.

IX. Procedural Process:

- All complaints can be made to the Title IX coordinator or the Assistant Title IX coordinator (See section III for specific roles).

- Know your rights (See section VI and VII for rights).

- Investigation may include interviews of the parties involved. This will include witnesses and the gathering of other relevant information.

- An investigation of the report shall be commenced within ten business days and completed within sixty days.

- The College will take all necessary steps to remedy discriminatory effects on the survivor (s) and others (See Protective Measures in section V).

X. Appeal Process

- Appeals of the findings of the formal process are filed to the appeal officer. For students, this is the Vice President for Student Affairs.

- Complainant or Accused may appeal if they:
  A. Disagree with the outcome
  B. Have new evidence that was not available at the time of the decision
  C. Feel the process was not followed

- The appeal must be made in writing within 5 business days.

XI. Police Involvement

- The survivor has the right to file a report with the police and seek prosecution.
- The decision to press charges does not have to be made at the same time the report is filed. However, filing the report will help preserve this option in the future.
- Survivors may choose whether or not to speak to police at the hospital.
- Private physicians are not required to notify the police. If a survivor desires police involvement, they may request this contact.

XII: Medical Assistance

- A Victim Resource Advocate can offer support at the hospital. The survivor may ask for the advocate at the hospital.
- With a private physician, survivors may ask for a rape kit to be completed. Having a rape kit completed does NOT mean that survivors are mandated to press charges.
- In the event of a sexual assault, survivors should not bathe, urinate, brush teeth, or drink liquids.
- Clothes should NOT be changed, but if they are bring all original clothing to the hospital in a paper bag (Plastic bags damage evidence).

 When necessary, seek immediate medical attention at an area hospital and take a full change of clothing and shoes for use after the medical examination.

XIII. Survivors need to:

- Seriously consider obtaining medical help
- Feel safe
- Be understood
- Know it was NOT their fault
- Experience control of his or her life again
