MASS SCHEDULE FOR SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 20, 2015

11 AM AND 8 PM

MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY 12:05 PM

King's College will welcome back hundreds of alumni and friends for the 2015 Homecoming/ Reunion Weekend, Friday, September 18 through Sunday, September 20. The College will combine these two important alumni events, homecoming and reunion, into a fall weekend scheduled with multiple celebratory activities. The weekend will include a special reunion and recognition of the Class of 1965, the members of which will celebrate their 50th Anniversary this year and be pinned "Golden Monarchs" in a special ceremony at the 11:00 AM Mass.

Panel Discussion on "Laudato si" of Pope Francis

King's College will host a panel discussion on the encyclical of Pope Francis, "Laudato si," at 4:15 p.m., Monday, Sept. 21, in the Snyder Room, Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center, at King's College.

The panel will feature King's College faculty Dr. Anna Minore, associate professor of theology; Dr. Margarita Rose, professor and chair of the economics department; Dr. Brian Mangan, director of the Environmental Program and professor of environmental science and biology; and Rabbi Daniel Swartz, Temple Hesed of Scranton.

Each participant will speak for approximately 10 minutes, followed by a question and answer session with the audience. Parking will be available in on-campus lots.

The lecture is sponsored by the Catholic Identity and Mission Committee. For more information, contact College Chaplain Rev. Thomas Looney, C.S.C., at (570) 208-5890 or e-mail thomaslooney@kings.edu.

Join representatives from Campus Ministry, The Counseling Center, IITS and The Women's Studies Department for an educational, candid, and multi-angled discussion on the presence and effects of pornography on college campuses today. The Porn Panel will be open to questions on Monday, September 14 at 7:30 pm in the Fitzgerald Room on the 3rd floor of The Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center.

Diversity Film Festival and Hispanic Heritage Month

King's College will host free screenings of the films "The Official Story," "A Day Without A Mexican," "Crash," and "The Other Side of Immigration" as part of the Fifth Annual Diversity Film Festival at King's College. Screenings will be held on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. on Sept. 16, 23, 30, and Oct. 7, respectively, in the Burke Auditorium.

Pilgrimage to Montreal: Fall Break, October 14th to 17th. Check your email for more information or contact Fr. Looney at ext. 5836.

Wellspring Retreat: A retreat for First-Year Students. Join us for the best 24 hours of your first semester! Friday, October 2nd to Saturday, October 3rd. Transportation will be provided.

Christian Praise and Worship: Do you enjoy listening to Christian music? Sharing your favorite Christian music with others? Spending time with fellow students who share your faith? Then Christian Praise and Worship nights at King's are for you. If you are interested in being part of a planning team for these nights of faith and song, please contact Fr. Tom Looney in Campus Ministry. Be on the lookout for an announcement about our first gathering.

Campus Renew: Do you ever wonder, "what does faith have to do with my life as a college student?" Do you ever wonder, "what does the Word of God have to say to me as a young adult?" Do you ever wonder, "what do my friends and fellow students think about these things?" If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, Campus Renew is for you. Campus Renew is a student-run, student-led, and focused discussion group. Keep your eyes open for announcements about the first meetings of the semester. If you have any questions or already know that you are interested contact Fr. Tom Looney in Campus Ministry.
