21st Annual Emerging Artists Invitational Exhibit

Meet The Artist: Friday, September 5 | 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Exhibit: Monday, August 18 – Friday, September 12

For the past 20 years the Emerging High School Artists Invitational Exhibit for 9-12th grade students has been coordinated by Sue Hand. The artwork is all original in content and must not have been featured in a prior public art exhibit.

Study Abroad Showcase

Exhibit: Tuesday, September 17 – Monday, September 30

A collection of photography by King's College students who've participated in recent study abroad programs in Northern Ireland, Australia, Bulgaria, North Macedonia, Greece, Canada, Ireland, England, and Peru.

Ben's Landscaping

Exhibit: Monday, October 6 – Friday, October 24

Meet The Artist: TBD

Ben has been painting oil landscapes for over 15 years, having first learned by watching Bob Ross. This is his first exhibit where he will permit others—beyond just his family—to see and appreciate his talent. His collection features a wide variety of landscapes, including summer scenes of barns, winter vistas, springtime trees, deep woods, beaches, mountains, water wheels, rustic buildings, and skies painted in a range of vibrant colors.

Day of The Dead

Hispanic & Latino Excellence Center and Campus Ministry

Celebration Event: TBD

Exhibit: Tuesday, October 28 – Monday, November 3rd

Join us as we prepare to celebrate El Día de Los Muertos, a day where the border between the land of the living and the land of the dead converges; a day where families celebrate the lives of their deceased loved ones. Everyone attending is welcome to bring personal items or photographs of those whom you wish to commemorate.

First Generation Celebration | WHY AM I FIRST?

Office of KC Pathways

Celebration Event: TBD

Exhibit: Tuesday, November 4 – Monday, November 10

WHY AM I FIRST? This campaign highlights first generation students, staff, faculty, alumni, and a few famous individuals' stories on being a first-generation student, words of who've supported them and why, and a focus on their resilience.

Hunger For Justice

Shoval Center

Exhibit: Tuesday, November 11 – Friday, December 1

Hunger for Justice is an annual collaborative, educational, and interactive exhibit that highlights food insecurity in our area and beyond. The event also features a special construction project by the College's engineering ASCE student chapter using everyday donated items.

Winter Wonderland

MISP Office

Hot Chocolate Bar: Thursday, December 4 | Tuesday, December 9 | Time: 12 – 2 p.m.

Exhibit: Thursday, December 4 – Friday, December 12

Any time, you can visit the Gallery, interact with the Resilience Tree, the Wall of Gratitude, and decorate ornaments in front of the fireplace! Bring your family and friends! See above for the reception dates and join us for festive music and the hot chocolate bar.
