TRADITIONS AND SYMBOLS

ACADEMIC SEAL

The Academic Seal is the legal emblem of King's College and is traditionally reserved for academic events and materials. It includes a band encircling a shield with the full Latin name of the institution—Collegium Christi Regis, as the College is dedicated to Christ the King and the year of the institution's founding. The regal sceptre in the middle of the shield is a symbol of His divine power, which is accentuated by three gold crowns to represent the triple Kingship of Christ (ministerial power, magisterial power, and legislative power). The comet with thirteen streamers is taken directly from the coat of arms of Leo XIII, the Champion of Labor, to emphasize the dignity of the laboring class. The chief, upper compartment displays the coat of arms of the Congregation of Holy Cross, which founded and sponsors the College. The top of the shield is adorned with laurel, the official flower of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, while the bottom includes a ribbon with the Latin motto "It is fitting that He should reign."

COLLEGE COLORS

Red is the liturgical color of charity and indicates the great love of Christ the King for the human race. Gold is a precious metal associated with royalty.

THE COLLEGE MACE

The King's College mace was commissioned for the inauguration of the eighth president, Rev. Thomas J. O'Hara, C.S.C., Ph.D. '71. It is carved from a single piece of walnut that is more than 100 years old and made with distressed aluminum and anthracite coal. Its components represent the mission of the College as well as the community and region of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

THE CHAIN OF OFFICE

The bronze medallion worn by the President of King's College was commissioned in 1974 for the inauguration of the sixth president, Rev. Charles D. Sherrer, C.S.C., Ph.D. The design includes the Academic Seal and is surrounded by the laurel, the official flower of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ALMA MATER

Hail our royal Regent, thy sovereign name we praise.

King of earth and heaven,
watcher of our ways.

We're forever loyal,
ever proud to sing,
the glories of the school we cherish,
hail to Christ the King.
