

McLean Scholarship Essay Requirement

Please write a brief essay (no more than 2 pages) describing your college experience, including the following information in your essay:

- Why did you choose your major?
- What steps are you taking to insure that you succeed in your major?
- What do you plan to do upon graduating and what are your academic/career goals?
- Please describe the primary volunteer/extracurricular activities in which you participate. How do these activities relate to your major, and what leadership roles have you have taken on?

Please limit your essay to two (2) double-spaced pages. You must use 1-inch margins (left, right, top & bottom) in your document. Use a font that is easily readable and a font size of 11 or larger. Failure to follow these guidelines could mean that you will not be considered for the McLean Scholarship.

In addition to your application and required essay, you are encouraged to submit a copy of your academic transcript, a letter of recommendation, and any other materials that you feel will be helpful to the scholarship selection committee in making their decision.

Your completed application, essay, signed certification page, and any supporting materials must be returned to your Financial Aid Office no later than May 20, 2026.

Completed applications must be submitted to AICUP by the Financial Aid Office. Applications submitted directly to AICUP will NOT be considered!

Award Notification:

Each student chosen to receive a scholarship will be notified by AICUP by email in early August 2026. AICUP will mail a check to the financial aid office at each recipient's school in mid-August 2026 with instructions to apply the award to the student's account. Scholarship recipients will be advised to notify their school's financial aid office if the money is not applied to their account in a reasonable amount of time. We also ask that each scholarship recipient acknowledge receipt of the award through a "thank you" letter to the McLean Contributionship.

McLEAN SCHOLARSHIP – FAQs

Q. Can a student receive the scholarship if they are a freshman?

A. Yes, the student can be a freshman, However, the McLean Scholarship recipients must be enrolled in a nursing or physician assistant degree program. In many cases this criterion cannot be met at the freshman level.

Q. Can a student receive the scholarship if they are enrolled for only one semester of the 2026-2027 academic year (e.g., they are studying abroad or have completed degree requirements and are graduating early)?

A. Yes, a student is eligible for the scholarship as long as they will be an enrolled full-time student for at least one semester.

Q. Can the scholarship award be held by my institution while a student is studying abroad for the fall semester and returning to campus for the spring?

A. Yes, as long as the student remains registered as a full-time student at your institution and will attend on-campus for at least one semester.

Q. Can a previous recipient of the McLean Scholarship apply again?

A. No, previous recipients of the McLean Scholarship are not eligible to reapply for the scholarship. However, previous applicants for the McLean Scholarship, who were not selected for an award, may reapply.
