

Position Vacancy

POSITION: Academic Advisor

CLASSIFICATION: Exempt

DEPARTMENT: Office of Academic Advisement

REPORTS TO: Director of Academic Advisement

JOB FUNCTION:

The Academic Advisor provides educational guidance and assistance for first-year students concerning their academic plans and progress, class schedule, choice of major, and other academic related issues to assist the student in making decisions concerning educational goals leading to graduation.

ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS:

1. Assist in the coordination of placement testing and course scheduling for all first-year students.
2. Review transcript equivalencies from Registrar's Office and prepare individual course planners for first-year students.
3. Participate in King's College Orientation activities with regards to Academic Advising related items and/or sessions.
4. Advise students individually and/or in groups regarding Core and/or Major course requirements, course selection, academic policies and procedures, and academic resources.
5. Advise special population of students within scope of responsibility such as new freshmen and transfer students, undeclared majors, and special programs such as Honors, Achievement Plus, College Entry, College Discovery, and students pursuing a majors linked to various articulation agreements.
6. Monitor first-year students' academic progress through mid-term deficiencies/grades and the Early Alert/Excessive Absence reporting system and develop strategies to help them succeed.
7. Carefully monitor at-risk students and develop and oversee a Student Action Plan for students placed on Academic Probation.
8. Meet with first-year students a minimum of two times per semester and as necessary.
9. Inform advisees of significant deadlines regarding Course Add, Course Drop, Mid-Terms, Course Withdrawals, and Academic Support Services.
10. Receive and give referrals to and from faculty and other College administrators for students' major considerations, academic issues, or personal concerns.
11. Maintain advising records and confidential student records in compliance with FERPA regulations.
12. Serve on appropriate department, college, and/or campus advisory committees

13. Engage in professional development activities by participating in conferences, training sessions, and webinars to stay current in the best practices of academic advising
14. Participate in office staff development, workshops, programs, and administrative functions and meetings.
15. Utilize Colleague and other King's College information systems for advising purposes.
16. Oversee student workers.
17. Perform related duties as required or deemed necessary to meet the goals of the Office or Academic Advisement within the Advisor's scope of responsibility.

NON-ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS:

1. Regularly attends professional development conferences and workshops.
2. Performs other related duties as assigned.

REQUIRED SKILLS, EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING:

Master's Degree preferred; Advanced computer skills with expertise in various software packages; Capacity to utilize new and evolving social media for purpose of contacting advisees; Experience with Colleague or other Higher Education Database system preferred; Sensitivity to the needs of a diverse student population, including minority and international students; Excellent interpersonal/human relations skills; Sound written and oral communication skills; Ability to encourage and empower students to make sound academic and career decisions; Ability to identify students' needs for support services, make appropriate referrals, and maintain confidentiality according to FERPA regulations; Availability for occasional evening and/or weekends functions

WORKING CONDITIONS:

Typical office working conditions. Finger dexterity, ability to sit for long periods of time.

Interested candidates, please email resume and cover letter to hrjobs@kings.edu.