

Director of RN to BS in Nursing Program

King's College, Wilkes-Barre, PA, seeks an individual to serve as program director for the accredited RN to BS in Nursing program. Rank and position type of this faculty position is commensurate with individual experience. The position requires flexible teaching hours. Responsibilities include teaching across the RN to BS in Nursing program as well as the 1-2-1 Dual Degrees in Nursing curriculum, involvement in student recruitment and advisement, scholarly activity, and serving on departmental and college committees.

The R.N. to Bachelor of Science in Nursing program supports an agreement that King's has reached with Luzerne County Community College. This partnership is designed for students to enroll in courses at King's in the first year, complete the Associate degree in nursing at LCCC in the second and third years, and complete coursework for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing at King's during the fourth year. This program provides students with a seamless pathway to a traditional, four-year experience in the environment of a small college with a strong liberal arts foundation that leads to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree.

The director working with the chairperson will coordinate scheduling, review and revise the curriculum, and establish and maintain accreditation at the national and state levels. The director will teach nine credits per semester while performing duties associated with the administration of the program.

Successful candidates will minimally possess an earned Master of Science in nursing, a minimum of 3 years of clinical experience, and a minimum of 3 years of experience in baccalaureate nursing education. Successful candidates will also have experience with accreditation of nursing programs, potential for teaching excellence, administrative ability, including interpersonal, leadership and management skills, and the capacity to work positively with internal college communities (both King's College and Luzerne County Community College) as well as with external medical and health systems. Successful candidate will support the Holy Cross Mission and Catholic identity of the College.

To apply, send one .pdf file containing a letter of application, CV, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to hrjobs@kings.edu. Review of applications will begin at that time and continue until the position is filled.

King's College is a private, Catholic, teaching college of the liberal arts & sciences and professional programs sponsored by the Congregation of Holy Cross. The College serves over 2400 FT & PT undergrad & graduate students. A rigorous core curriculum provides the foundation for all majors. The College is located near downtown Wilkes-Barre, on the edge of the Pocono Mountains. King's is committed to recruiting a diverse faculty and student body and welcomes applications from persons of traditionally under-represented groups. EOE
