March 10, 2019

Global Landscapes Conference 2019, an interdisciplinary conference will assemble scholars, educators, students, and community members who are interested in examining important issues facing us as a mankind and who recognize the need for cooperation among different constituents to find sustainable solutions amid a changing social, economic, and natural environment.

This interdisciplinary conference has proven that world citizens need to care about various local, regional as well as global topics. An interdisciplinary approach shows that there are many ways to analyze and research a topic. For past 11 years the GLC enabled discussion provided by participants in the forms of presentation, poster and panel have enriched the ideas formed by the interactions with the experts.

The objective of the conference is to promote interdisciplinary discussion of the research topics within a global landscape across academic curricula, business practice and policy perspective.

The call is open to faculty and faculty sponsored student research in all disciplines. The submission of student authored papers is also welcome. Undergraduate research conference presentations are sponsored by the King's College Chapter of the International Business Honor Society, Epsilon Chi Omicron. Proposals/abstract for panels and papers must be submitted latest by March 10, 2019 to the Conference Chair, Bindu Vyas, Ph.D. binduvyas@kings.edu, McGowan School of Business, King's College.

Consider volunteering as a track chair.
