

Graduate Assistant, Men's soccer Coach: King's College (PA)

King's College, a member of the MAC Freedom Conference and NCAA Division III, located in northeastern Pennsylvania, invites applications for a Graduate Assistant position for Men's Soccer. Successful candidates for this position will get (2) graduate level classes per session (Fall, Spring, Summer), a small stipend, on campus housing, and a meal plan. Position estimated start date August 1, 2021 and is renewable on a year to year basis.

Position Responsibilities Include but not Limited to

- Goalkeeping Instruction
- On the field instruction
- Recruiting
- Monitor Student-Athlete Academic Progress
- Team Operations of practices and games
- Film breakdown & analysis
- Fundraising & Alumni outreach
- I.D Clinics & Camps
- Gameday management (various sports)
- Other tasks assigned by Head Coach and/or Athletic Director

Required Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree
- Candidate has in interest in pursuing coaching as a profession
- Collegiate playing experience
- Must have interpersonal and communication skills
- Must be organized
- Background check clearance
- U.S Driver License

Preferred Qualifications

- Goalkeeper coaching or playing experience
- Experience coaching at high school, elite club, or college level
- Experience with recruiting
- Experience with film breakdown & analysis
- USC, USSF coaching qualification or equivalent

NOTES: U.S Residence Only

*Additional monies can be earned through camp and club involvement

Application Process: To apply for this position, please send a cover letter, resume, and reference sheet to Head Men's Soccer Coach; John Velasco via e-mail Johnvelasco@kings.edu Please put "GA Candidate" in the e-mail subject. Screening will start immediately and continue until position is filled.

King's College is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.