In order for the financial aid office to certify a Federal Direct Stafford loan on your behalf, you must tell us how much you wish to borrow, and which semesters you wish your loan to cover. A graduate student may borrow up to $20,500 for every two semesters of enrollment. In addition, the student may borrow up to the cost of attendance with a GRAD PLUS Loan if the applicant is considered credit-worthy by the Department of Education.

By law, a graduate level student may borrow a maximum of $138,500 in Stafford Loans.

PLEASE NOTE: To be eligible for a loan, students in the Physician's Assistant program must have a 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on file, have completed the Federal Direct Stafford Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN) and Entrance Counseling, and maintain satisfactory academic progress. If you have not filed the FAFSA, you may do so online at www.fafsa.gov. If you have not completed the MPN and ELC, you may do so online at www.studentloans.gov.

In addition, PA Graduate students who have borrowed $20,500 for two semesters of enrollment in Federal Direct Stafford loans, but who need additional loan funds, may apply for a Federal Direct Graduate PLUS loan at www.studentloans.gov. If approved for that loan, you must also complete a separate Federal Direct Graduate PLUS loan Master Promissory Note, and PLUS Loan Counseling at www.studentloans.gov.

Student loan indebtedness is a serious legal responsibility. ONLY BORROW WHAT YOU NEED.
