

PA Clinical Coordinator

King's College, Wilkes-Barre, PA seeks a clinical faculty member for its Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies Program. This is a full-time, 12-month, non-tenure track, promotion-eligible faculty position. The applicant must be an NCCPA-certified Physician Assistant with clinical experience as a PA and a master's degree is preferred. Prior experience in an academic setting and in leadership are also preferred. The successful candidate will support the Holy Cross mission and Catholic identity of the College.

Duties include assisting the Clinical Director in coordinating and monitoring clinical rotation sites & schedules, recruiting new clinical sites, establishing affiliation agreements with rotation sites, developing exams & other clinical assessment tools, and sharing in the didactic responsibilities of academic instruction (classroom teaching, proctoring exams, providing clinical skills demonstration, supervising OSCE's and teaching in the physical diagnosis lab, etc.). The successful candidate will assist with program assessment, must be willing to travel, and must possess computer fluency and strong organizational and communication skills. Scholarship and service to the college and the community is expected.

A Catholic institution of higher education animated and guided by the Congregation of Holy Cross, King's pursues excellence in teaching, learning, and scholarship through a rigorous core curriculum, major programs across the liberal arts and sciences, nationally accredited professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and personal attention to student formation in a nurturing community. The College is located near downtown Wilkes-Barre, on the edge of the Pocono Mountains. King's is committed to recruiting a diverse faculty and student body and welcomes applications from people of traditionally under-represented groups.
