

King's College invites applications for part-time instructor opportunities in the College's Department of Education for various courses, on an as-needed semesterly basis. Courses are taught in face-to-face, blended, and online formats.

Programs offered: PK-4 Education, Special Education PK-12, Educational Studies, Education Mathematics Grades 4-8, Education Science Grades 4-8, Master's Degree Reading, Master's Degree Curriculum and Instruction, and Master's Degree Special Education. We also offer endorsements and certifications in: Principalship, Autism, STEM, Instructional Coaching, English as a Second Language, and Reading Specialist.

The Education Department of King's College is comprised of well-credentialed teacher-scholars dedicated to preparing young men and women to become excellent teachers who value lifelong learning. Small class settings allow for student formation through academic rigor, creative pedagogy, and individualized attention.

A Catholic institution of higher education animated and guided by the Congregation of Holy Cross, King's pursues excellence in teaching, learning, and scholarship through a rigorous core curriculum, major programs across the liberal arts and sciences, nationally accredited professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and personal attention to student formation in a nurturing community. Further information about King's can be found at www.kings.edu.

Minimum Requirements: Master's degree in field of education, relevant teaching certification, five years classroom teaching experience and flexibility in class scheduling. Preferred Requirements: Doctorate or ABD in education with previous college-level teaching experience.

To Apply: send a single *.pdf document containing a letter of interest, curriculum vitae and three references to hrjobs@kings.edu. Open until filled.