Employee's Withholding Certificate

▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 ▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 ▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

2020

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly (or Qualifying widow(er)) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____ Add the amounts above and enter the total here 3 $ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$ _____

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	▶ _____ ▶ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)		▶ _____ ▶ Date

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er); $18,650 if you're head of household; $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO EMPLOYERS

1. The municipality is required by law to exempt from the LST employees whose earned income from all sources (employers and self-employment) in their municipality is less than $12,000 when the levied rate exceeds $10.00.
2. The school district for the municipality in which your worksite(s) is located may or may not levy an LST. If it does, the income exemption provided may differ from the municipality and can be anywhere from $0 to $11,999.
3. Contact the tax office where your business worksites are located to obtain this information.

King's College Guidelines for Employees for Interaction with Minors

(A child or minor is defined as a person under the age of eighteen. This includes students seventeen years of age and younger.)

As King's employees, it is our duty to model and maintain appropriate professional relationships with children and minors. Even though our employment at the College may not bring us into routine or direct contact with children, some contact may still occur as part of our work at King's. For example, many first-year students are minors by legal definition during their first year at King's. Residence life staff and coaches, for example, encounter students under the age of eighteen in locker rooms and living quarters. Faculty members who teach dual enrollment courses are in regular contact with minors. Numerous events sponsored by the College itself (Open Houses, Athletic and Fine Arts events, etc.), or outside groups often bring children to our campus.

The following guidelines provide basic information about interacting with minors up to and including children who are seventeen years of age. These guidelines apply both on and off campus while representing King's College. While some of the guidelines presented here might not pertain directly to your employment at the College, it is important to be aware of these guidelines so that together we can exercise our common responsibility to protect the safety and welfare of children. Maintaining appropriate professional boundaries can help to identify and prevent child abuse. King's College maintains separate policies that outline employee reporting responsibilities, as well as clearance, training and education requirements: "Protection of Children Policy" and "Clearance, Education, Mandatory Disclosure, and Training Requirements for King's College Employees, Students, Vendors and Volunteers." These guidelines are intended to provide an additional resource to promote the safety of minors and the development of healthy, professional and appropriate relationships.

Guidelines

- 1) When organizing a College activity involving children not enrolled at the College, the person in charge of the event should consult the College's Child Safety Protection Officer to ensure that appropriate levels of supervision are present.
- 2) Children not enrolled at the College must have parental permission for the child's participation in the activity.
- 3) When facilitating programs for children, the program supervisors must ensure that each child's whereabouts can be accounted for at all times and that activities are conducted in open areas with appropriate levels of supervision whenever possible.

- 4) With the exception of medical or other emergencies, employees should not be alone with a child, particularly in an isolated or private setting. Follow the “rule of three.” Always have at least two adults or one adult and two children present. This provides safety for the children in the event of an injury or other emergency and is most protective of the employee and the program. Professors and professional staff may meet privately in college offices with students enrolled at the College on matters related to their common work.
- 5) During sports camps and other organized activities involving young children, safety requires adult supervision in locker rooms, restrooms, and changing areas. When supervising showers or changing areas, or any circumstance in which a child may be dressing or undressing, two adult supervisors should be present nearby. Supervisors are always to respect the privacy of the child. In addition, supervisors should not undress in front of or shower with minors.
- 6) If the program involves overnight accommodations, never sleep in the same bed or share sleeping accommodations (e.g. hotel rooms, bedrooms, tents) with a child.
- 7) Whenever possible, require children to use the buddy system (each child is assigned to another child as a companion) when participating in an off-campus program. Children should not be permitted to leave the group by himself or herself.
- 8) Do not hit or strike a child in any manner. Do not use any form of physical discipline or verbally abuse a child. Regarding verbal abuse, for example, do not ridicule, demean, bully, threaten, or scream at a child.
- 9) Always respect a child’s physical boundaries and use good judgment about physical contact. Physical contact is not always necessary or appropriate in conveying concern. When physical contact seems appropriate the least intrusive form that communicates concern and support ought to be chosen. While it may seem perfectly natural, at times, to initiate an appropriate form of physical contact (e.g. placing your hand on the shoulder of a crying child), remember that not all children are comfortable with physical contact; children have the right to reject displays of affection. Hugs, initiated by the child, are permissible, but ought not to be prolonged. Respecting the child’s physical boundaries while remaining supportive is key.
- 10) Do not engage in any form of inappropriate contact, for example, holding a school-aged child on your lap for an extended period of time, or slapping a child on the buttocks. Do not engage in physical “play” (e.g. tickling or wrestling) with children.

- 11) Treat all children consistently and fairly and avoid displaying favoritism.
- 12) Use age-appropriate language. Do not curse and do not discuss sensitive personal matters, especially anything sexual in nature. If a child initiates a conversation that leads you to suspect child abuse, follow the guidelines in # 17.
- 13) Do not use alcohol or drugs or encourage the use of alcohol or other drugs with or in front of children.
- 14) Do not give gifts to children without the permission of the child's parents or guardians. If a child gives you a gift valued at $25 or more acknowledge receipt of the gift to the child's parent or guardian.
- 15) As a general rule, do not exchange any personal information such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, and do not respond to or initiate any relationships with children outside of the program (e.g., do not "friend" children on Facebook, engage in other social media, exchange texts, or initiate any face-to-face meetings). Contacting students enrolled in one's courses or programs on matters related to the common work engaged is, of course, permissible, but it should be through official King's College email accounts. Any contact with minors through personal email, telephone, or social media must be with parental knowledge and permission.
- 16) If a child is initiating contact outside of the program setting, especially multiple times, inform your supervisor or department chairperson.
- 17) If you have reasonable cause to suspect child abuse, or a child discloses abuse to you, follow the protocols established in the College's "Protection of Children Policy." If a child is in immediate danger call 911. If the danger is not immediate contact the PA ChildLine hotline (800-932-0312) and the Executive Director of Campus Safety and Security.
- 18) Employees who have questions about appropriate boundaries should speak with their supervisors, department chairs, program director, the College's Child Safety Protection Officer, or the Executive Director of Safety and Security.

I, hereby, attest that I have read the attached guidelines, understand the contents of this document, and I will follow these guidelines in my interactions with children.
