Process for Formal Admission to the Teacher Education Program

Requirements

The following requirements are mandated by the Pennsylvania Department of Education:

- Undergraduate students must submit a completed application packet no sooner than the completion of 48 credits and no later than the completion of 60 credits.
- Post-baccalaureate students submit a completed application after the completion of six education credits and before beginning student teaching or the special education culminating field experience.

The following classes must be completed prior to application:

- EDUC 202, Educational Philosophy, Ethics, Issues, and Trends
- EDUC 215/235, (PK-4/Secondary) Development, Cognition, and Learning I (with field experience)
- Six credits in English (ENG 110 and Literature core)
- Six credits in Mathematics (MATH 101 and MATH 102, or higher level as required by content area)
- Transfer Undergraduate Students: If any or all credits were transferred, apply for candidacy after the completion of nine education credits at King's College, but no sooner than the total completion of 48 credits and no later than the 60 transfer and 9 King's credits.

The following criteria must also be met:

- Grade of "C" or better in all education courses. Secondary certification students must achieve a grade of "C" or better in their major certification area.
- An overall cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or a 2.8 GPA with the understanding that higher cut-scores will be required on content exams for certification.
- The qualities of personal character, integrity, high moral conduct, and positive personality traits must be evident in application essays, instructor recommendations, and disposition rubrics.
- Two (2) recommendation forms completed by education professors who taught the candidate a class. Professors complete the recommendations in the application form.
- Completion of the entire application for formal Admission to the Teacher Education Program.
- A short, scheduled interview with an Admissions Committee comprised of Department faculty.

* PDE released guidance in July 2022 regarding the implementation of Act 55, which waived the basic skills requirement for three years.

Deadlines for Application to Candidacy
