

Visiting Assistant/Associate Professor of Civil Engineering

King's College, Wilkes-Barre, PA is seeking a Visiting Assistant/Associate Professor of Civil Engineering for the 2022-23 academic year, with potential for renewal.

King's College initiated its Bachelor of Science program in Civil Engineering in fall 2017. This program, along with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering program, enables students to earn engineering degrees with the benefits of a small college environment, including modest class sizes, personalized attention, high-impact teaching, and a strong liberal arts experience.

Requirements include a Ph.D. in Civil Engineering, or a related field. Preference will be given to candidates with college-level teaching experience and expertise in geotechnical, transportation, and civil materials.

Particularly welcome are candidates interested in providing students with meaningful research opportunities and who are supportive of the Holy Cross Mission and Catholic identity of the College.

Send one *.pdf file containing a letter of application, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, statement of research interests, a list of three references with contact information, and undergraduate and graduate transcripts to hrjobs@kings.edu. Letters of recommendation should be available upon request.

Application deadline is July 1st, 2022, though all applications will be given full consideration until the position is filled.

King's College is a private, Catholic college of the liberal arts & sciences and professional programs sponsored by the Congregation of Holy Cross. The College serves over 2100 FT & PT undergrad & graduate students. A rigorous core curriculum provides the foundation for all majors. The College is located near downtown Wilkes-Barre, on the edge of the Pocono Mountains. King's is committed to recruiting a diverse work force and welcomes applications from persons of traditionally under-represented groups. EOE www.kings.edu/hr
