

Widmann Gallery: Fall Semester

Emerging High School Artists

August 22nd – September 16th | Meet The Artist: Friday August 26th: 6pm-8pm

For the past 18 years, the Emerging Artists Invitational Art Exhibit for high school students has been coordinated by Sue Hand. All art work displayed are the originals of each student.

Brian Gibbons

September 19th-October 20th | Meet The Artist: Wednesday September 21st:

The theme will be peace, nature/landscape, and astrophotography. Much of the photography featured will be from the local surrounding areas. Prints will var in dizg

Study Abroad

October 21st – October 23rd

Photos from King's students' recent Study Abroad experiences in Canada, Spain, Ireland, Denmark, and France will be showcased during the Family and Friends weekend exhibition.

El Dia de los Muertos

November 1st- November 4th

El Día de los Muertos celebration is celebrated every year in Mexico. It is a two-day long celebration on November 1 and 2 to remember and celebrate loved ones who have passed. This event focuses on bringing peace and healing to those who have been mourning the loss of a loved one

Hunger For Justice

November 7th- December 2nd

Hunger for Justice Week is King's College version of the National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, an annual program where people come together across the country to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. The Shoval Center for Community Engagement and Learning at King's College hosts a variety of special events throughout the week for the King's Community to offer solidarity to those in need, raise awareness, educate on issues facing the surrounding communities, and to provide opportunities for direct and indirect service to offer help to those most in need.

Bernard Paramba

December 5th – January 5th | Meet The Artist: TBA

After retiring from 35 years of service with the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, Bernard W. Poremba of Plymouth PA finally had the opportunity to pursue his passion- art. As a retirement gift, his wife presented him with art lessons with Joel Carson Jones at Tru Form Studio in Plymouth. He began with charcoal pencil, white chalk, and colored pencil, eventually moving into oil painting. Bernard and his wife of 52 years also have two sons and two grandchildren.