

Graduate Assistant, Women's Basketball Coach

Classification	Graduate Assistant
Department	Athletics
Reports To	Women's Basketball Coach

King's College, a member of the MAC Freedom Conference and NCAA Division III, located in northeastern Pennsylvania, invites applications for a Graduate Assistant position for Women's Basketball. Successful candidates for this position will get (2) graduate level classes per session (Fall, Spring, Summer, Accelerated) towards completion of graduate degree, a small stipend, housing on campus, and a meal plan. Position estimated start date August 2023 and is renewable on a year-to-year basis.

Position Responsibilities

- Player Development planning and instruction
- Identifying and recruiting potential student-athletes
- Monitoring student-athlete academic progress
- Planning, organizing, and executing practice/game/recruiting strategies
- Film breakdown & analysis
- Social Media account management
- Game Day responsibilities such as coordinate film, meals on road, accommodations, etc.
- Create fundraising and promotion opportunities
- Other tasks as assigned by the head coach and athletic director

Qualifications Required

- Bachelor's degree
- Willingness to work nights and weekends throughout the year
- Willingness to travel nights and weekends throughout the year
- Must have strong interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills
- Unqualified background check (clearance)
- U.S. driver's license

Qualifications Preferred

- Candidates with the intent to pursue athletics as a profession
- Playing/coaching experience
- Camp and clinic experience
- Understanding of NCAA Division 3 rules/regulations

NOTES: U.S. Residents Only

*Additional monies can be earned through camp and club involvement.

Application Process: To apply for this position, please send a cover letter, resume, and reference sheet to Head Women's Basketball Coach; Caitlin Hadzimichalis via e-mail caitlinhadzimichalis@kings.edu Please put "GA Candidate" in the e-mail subject. Screening will start immediately and continue until position is filled.

King's College is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.