

Pre-Law – Accelerated 3+3 Juris Doctor Track

3+3 Juris Doctor at Villanova University School of Law

Villanova University School of Law

Villanova University and King's College have arranged for the direct-entry admission of qualified King's students to pursue a doctorate in law at the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law.

THERE ARE TWO PATHWAYS FOR QUALIFIED STUDENTS:

1. A 3+3 pathway in which King's students spend three years at King's and then three years at Villanova, with credits earned at the successful completion of the first year of law school transferring back to King's to satisfy final graduation requirements.
2. A 4+3 pathway in which King's students apply to Villanova in their senior year and matriculate at the School of Law after having graduated from King's.

BENEFITS

- Application fee waived
- Preferred admission without the competition of the rest of the applicant pool
- For the 3+3 program, guaranteed full scholarship during three years of law school. For the 4+3 program, guaranteed one-half tuition scholarship during three years of law school. For both programs, a student will also be eligible for traditional financial aid and scholarships.
