Inclement Weather Examination Schedule

"Compressed Schedule procedures"

The following is the established policy regarding Final Examination scheduling in the event of snow related delays.

The key words to remember are "Compressed Schedule".
There will be no cancellation of examinations.

Day Classes:

In the event of snow/ice related delays, the local Wilkes-Barre/Scranton radio and television stations or the College Snowline at 570-208-5979 will have the announcement stating that a "Compressed Schedule" is in effect. This will mean that:

8:00 a.m. exams will begin at 10:00 a.m.
10:15 a.m. exams will begin at 12:05 p.m. (noon)
1:00 p.m. exams will begin at 2:10 p.m.
3:15 p.m. exams will begin at 4:15 p.m.

In the event of a storm-related College closing for the day, the entire day's examinations will be rescheduled for Saturday, December 19th at the regularly scheduled times.

No student or faculty is to assume that final examinations will/can be cancelled because of weather related problems.

Evening Classes (Undergraduate and Graduate):

If snow related rescheduling is required, check the local Wilkes-Barre/Scranton radio and television stations or the College Snowline at 570-208-5979.

In the event of a storm-related College closing during the Monday through Thursday final examination dates, final examinations will be rescheduled for Friday evening, December 18th at the same time and in the same classroom as originally scheduled.

If there are further complications, the Center for Lifelong Learning should be contacted.
