

King's College Off-Campus Policy June 25, 2021

The College maintains the Off-Campus Behavior and Responsibility Policy, Off-Campus Residents Responsibility for Behavior in their apartment or house, and Regulation XVIII: Off-Campus Behavior along with other regulations that apply to off-campus living in the Student Code of Conduct and College policies as published in the Student Handbook.

Also:

1. First and foremost, students living off-campus or visiting the College neighborhoods are good neighbors and demonstrate respect for each other and members of the Wilkes-Barre community.
2. Students residing in off-campus housing must maintain the exterior of their properties with no garbage in the yard or on porches.
3. No soft or upholstered furniture is permitted on the porches, decks, or patios.
4. Students limit the number of guests in their house or apartment to provide for a safe environment.
5. Residents are not to permit a person in their house or apartment who they do not know or are not invited.
6. Follow all current recommendations issued by the Center for Disease Control and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Health or Governor's Office.
7. Adhere to all regulations and directives issued by the College through the Student Affairs Office.
8. Non fully vaccinated guests in any house or apartment are to wear a face mask.
9. Students may not have any gathering that results in noise that interferes with their neighbors at any time of the day. Also, they must adhere to the City of Wilkes-Barre ordinances on noise.
10. Engage all the general protocols related to COVID: frequent handwashing, face coverings, and social distancing.
11. Cooperate with Wilkes-Barre City Health, Fire, and Housing officials in any action initiated by those officials.
12. Discuss with one's housemates a plan to ensure good health practices.
