As you continue your college search journey we want to make our Admission Ambassadors available to discuss their King’s College experience with you. The students above are available by appointment to have video conversations with all of our accepted students and their families. Appointment times are 30 minutes in length and our Admission Ambassadors are open to meeting with students from all different majors and activity interests. If you would like to schedule an Admission Ambassador Video Session please contact;

Eric Grego
ericgrego@kings.edu or 570-208-8445

Following every scheduled video session an admissions counselor will be in touch with you to ensure all of your questions are answered.
